

Autistic ADD/ADHD Patient SIGNS AND SYMPTOMS

Place an (X) next to any signs/symptoms your child may demonstrate and note duration and details if appropriate.
Note: All of the following are referred to autistic children, only the BLUE ones are for both asthma and eczema. If your child is autistic, please fill out all the questions, Thank you.

Description	Mild	Moderate	Severe	Duration	Unique Details
Stimming (repetitive actions)
Rocking
Head banging
Self-mutilation
Nail biting
Aggressiveness (hitting, kicking, biting others)
Mood swings
Irritability/tantrums
Fears/anxieties
Hyperactivity
Inability to concentrate/focus
Fidgety in seat
Impulsive
Dizziness
Seizures
Poor coordination
Problems with buttons, ties, snaps or zippers
Processing problems – visual, motor, language, sensory, etc
Problems with social interactions
Sensitive to crowds
Trouble remembering
Fatigue
Cold hands/feet
Cold intolerance
Recurrent/chronic fever
Flushing
Excessive sweating
Difficulty falling asleep
Night walking
Nightmares
Difficulty walking
Bed wetting/soiling
Daytime wetting/soiling
Numbness/tingling hands & feet
Headache
Blinking
Staring

