

Daily Record of Food Intake

Your diet may be the key to better health

This is to help you discover what your triggers are and how you react to foods. It is not a list to place blame or judgment on your activities. Please be as accurate as you can with your normal diet DO NOT ALTER it, so that as a team we can help you feel balanced. You will feel more balanced when you eliminate your triggers.

Each day, record all the items you eat and drink. Be sure to include the approximate amount of each item. In the Notes: section: Please list any reactions to foods, energy slumps, irritability, jittery, weepy, full, stuffed, not hungry, heartburn or digestive complaints each day. If tracking Blood Pressure and Sugar levels please add them.
